

From Crises to Growth: A School Family's Journey

Interview with Social Worker Cathy Chan and Principals Lau Ching Yung & Wong Kwok Keung

如同家人般的協作 助學生重拾校園生活

專訪社工陳嘉媛 與劉清容、黃國強校長

Adolescents' mental health conditions have raised concerns in recent years. How should schools and social workers work together to help students through tough times? School Social Work and Support Services Social Worker Cathy Chan, together with former and current principals Lau Ching Yung and Wong Kwok Keung of New Territories Heung Yee Kuk Tai Po District Secondary School (NTHYKTPDSS), gave an outstanding answer in years of seamless partnership.

近年學生情緒健康狀況令人憂慮，學校與社工應該如何協作，助他們渡過難關？學校社會工作及學校支援服務的同工陳嘉媛（Cathy），連同她所服務的新界鄉議局大埔區中學前任及現任校長劉清容及黃國強，用多年實踐交出了一個令人鼓舞的答案。

Shoulder To Shoulder Like Family

如家人般並肩作戰 互信補位護航前行

Cathy Chan has served at NTHYKTPDSS for nearly a decade, with half the time partnering closely with former principal Lau Ching Yung. Through years of collaboration, their deepest takeaway is one word: "trust."

At school, the "trust" word takes concrete form during regular joint meetings among discipline teachers, guidance counselors and social workers. They openly share updates—whether emerging issues or hidden concerns—and brainstorm student support plans together. For instance, knowing that many girls enjoy cooking, they organized cooking workshops; for students with low learning motivation, they came up with activities with dynamic challenges to help students build a sense of achievement.

New principal Wong Kwok Keung, though only having worked with Cathy for a few months this school year, has already developed strong rapport with her. He compares the school-social worker relationship to that of a family: working seamlessly together and naturally filling each other's gaps. "If we had to explain everything and get approval at each and every step, many things simply couldn't get done," he says. He reflects that this unspoken understanding isn't built overnight, but through years of accumulated experience.

Cathy 於鄉中服務近十年，其中一半時光與前校長劉清容攜手並肩。經過多年磨合，兩人最深刻的體會就是一個「信」字，「我哋真係咩都傾，好有互信，凡事都會主動分工，合作無間」。

在學校，這個「信」化為實實在在的機制，包括定期舉行訓輔及學校社工聯席會議，坦誠交流「情報」，無論是已浮現的問題，還是潛藏的隱憂，都會攤開來討論，共同商討支援學生方案，例如不少女同學喜歡烹飪，他們就舉辦煮食工作坊，面對一些低學習動機的同學，又想出「喜有此你」計劃，讓他們參加較動態的活動，如原野烹飪及獨木舟等，建立成功感，這一切都是在會議中碰撞出來。

新學年剛上任的黃校長，雖與Cathy合作僅數月，卻已培養出默契。他將學校與社工關係比作家人，緊密無間、互相補位，好多情況不需言語，即能無縫配合：「因為如果事事要解釋、問過先去做，其實好多嘢都做唔到。」他亦感嘆，這份得來不易的默契，並非一朝一夕，而是多年累積的珍貴成果。

Nurturing Hidden Potentials During Crises 危機中的溫暖 守護隱藏光芒

"The first time I saw her was accompanying her to a follow-up medical appointment," Cathy recalls. Among many cases, this one remains unforgettable for Cathy. The student had been struggling with severe emotional distress and self-harm since childhood, and have been hospitalized from suicide attempts and self-injury during her primary school years. She couldn't even attend the Form 1 orientation when she joined NTHYKTPDSS.

The student had to avoid classrooms entirely, or was only able to manage occasional half-day attendance, spending most time in the social worker's office. Last October was a particularly tough period for the team – three students were sent to hospital within one month, and this student was one of them. During hospitalization, Cathy, the class teacher, counselors, and even the principal visited her one after another, just to deliver one message to this distraught girl - "You are not alone."

With everyone's unwavering support, she gradually stepped out of the social worker's office, and returned to classes step by step. The school arranged half-day in-person classes, paired with half-day online learning for a smooth transition back to campus life. The team also discovered the student's exceptional artistic talent along the way - her origami creations were innovative and exquisite. The team recalls the heartwarming moments when she volunteered to help during a lunchtime activity, and eventually challenged herself to a full school day for the first time - and she did it.

In recent exams, she completed several subjects for the first time in secondary school. "This is a huge breakthrough for her as she didn't take any exams throughout Primary 5 and 6," Cathy said. Though not yet "fully like other students," the three team members agree that every new step - half-day of attendance, or exam attempted - represents precious progress, and new horizons expanded gradually.

「我第一次見到佢，就已經係陪佢去覆診」，在眾多個案之中，Cathy提到一位學生，至今仍令她印象深刻。這位學生自小飽受嚴重情緒困擾及自我傷害行為折磨，小學時更曾因企跳、自殘而入院；中學開學，連中一迎新也無法出席，團隊當時嚴陣以待，步步為營。

憑藉眾人一路耐心同行，從走出社工室開始，逐步陪這位學生重返學習現場，學校配合安排半日實體課、半日網課，讓其按部就班適應校園。更意外發現，這位學生擁有極高藝術天賦，摺紙作品栩栩如生。最令人驚喜的，是在一次午膳活動中，學生主動提出幫忙，並挑戰首次全日上學，那天，亦真的做到了。

不久前考試，這位學生首次在中學階段完成幾科試卷。「諗起佢小學五、六年級幾乎無考過試，今次已經係好大突破。」Cathy坦言。雖然目前仍未能「完全同其他同學一樣」，但團隊三人一致認為，每多行一步、多上半日課、多考一科，已是來之不易的珍貴進步。

A Rewarding And Ongoing Journey 榮獲肯定 攜手並進

It was no surprise that the three ended up at the prize presentation ceremony of "Hong Kong School Social Worker Excellence in Collaboration Scheme" jointly organized by the Hong Kong Federation of Education Workers and Connecting Hearts, which honours outstanding partnerships between social workers and schools. Last year, Cathy Chan, as nominated by Principal Lau Ching Yung, moved the judges with their story and won the Individual Merit Award.

Cathy humbly stated that this honour is not her personal achievement, but the fruit of the entire school team's collective effort, with every "family member" pouring in their heart and soul together to bring out positive changes in students. She also attributed the award to her predecessors who built up tacit understanding with the school team, and worked hard to turn the social worker's office into students' most trusted haven. Both principals agree that the award was the testament to Cathy's outstanding work. While they are thankful of Cathy's dedication in serving students, they wished Cathy didn't have to work round the clock and answer student's messages in the middle of the night. They described their journey of supporting students as an endurance race: "There is no passing the baton - everyone kept doing what's best for students without ever stopping."

Looking ahead, Cathy hopes for more resources to enhance the social worker's office - installing projectors to create a private cinema, adding baking equipment for more activities - so students in need can integrate into campus life more quickly, transforming potential emotional crises into growth opportunities.

去年香港教育工作者聯會及香港社福界心連心大行動聯合主辦的「香港學校社工協作卓越計劃」，旨在表揚傑出的學校社工合作典範。Cathy獲劉校長提名，他們的故事更觸動了評審，讓Cathy榮獲「年度傑出學校社工優異獎」。

得獎的Cathy謙稱，這份榮譽非一人之功，而是學校團隊共同努力的結晶，每位「屋企人」傾注心血，群策群力方有成果。她又特別感激歷任社工多年來已與校方建立良好默契，一直用心關顧學生，讓社工室成為學生最信賴的避風港。兩名校長就一致認同Cathy實至名歸，一方面感激Cathy的付出，同時心疼她經常為學生廢寢忘餐，半夜亦需回覆他們的訊息。黃校長形容，學校與社工扶持學生就如耐力賽，「無話交低過支棒，大家不斷為學生好，根本上無停過。」

展望未來，Cathy盼望更多資源注入社工室，加裝投影機化身私人影院，添置烘焙設備豐富活動，讓有需要的學生更快融入校園，將潛在情緒危機轉化為成長契機。

Support for victims at Tai Po deadly blaze 國際社迅速支援大埔火災災民

As the city's deadliest fire in decades unfolded at the end of November, our colleagues surpassed the call of duty to provide all possible help to victims. Being one of the NGOs to grant The Community Chest Tai Po Fire Relief Fund, the team wanted to ensure that actual assistance reached the victims in the least possible time. As such, the Agency mobilized its own financial reserves and prepared hundreds of cash cheques of Hwithin hours, out of which 564 were passed to affected households through the ISSHK booths set up at CCC Fung Leung Kit Memorial Secondary School in Tai Po and Wu Kai Sha Youth Village, on 28 and 29 November. This arrangement reduced prolonged waiting times, and was well received by the beneficiary families. The Migrants team also sent colleagues to station at Taipo to assist migrant workers in need after the tragedy, while colleagues from Social Worker also volunteered to support the work of "One social worker per household" of SWD.

The China Social Welfare Foundation and China Social Assistance Foundation granted RMB 15 million and RMB 5 million respectively and to ISS-HK for disaster relief efforts. These experiences will help them uncover their unique personality traits and strengths, helping them chart career paths that truly align with their interests, abilities, and values.

I would like to express my gratitude to the schools, parents, employers from various sectors, and mentors for their trust and support. I look forward to embarking on this journey with students, helping them explore their hidden potential, broaden their horizons, and carve out their own paths.
